

Score

Along the Field As We Came By

Poem by A. E. Housman

Ann Carter-Cox

$\text{♩} = 60$

Voice

A - long the field as we came by A

Celtic Harp

Set low B \flat

2

2 year a - go, my love and I, The as - pen o - ver stile and stone Was

Hp.

4

4 talk - ing to it - self a - lone. "Oh who are these that

Hp.

6

6 kiss and pass? A coun-try lov-er and his lass; Two

Hp.

9

9 lov-ers look-ing to be wed; And time shall put them

Hp.

12

12 both to bed, But she shall lie with earth a-bove, And

Hp.

15

15 he be - side an - oth - er love."

Hp.

17

17

Hp.

19

19 And sure e - nough be - neath the tree There

Hp.

21

21 walks an - oth - er love with me, And o - ver - head the as - pen heaves Its

23

23 rain - y - sound - ing sil - ver leaves; And I spell noth - ing

25

25 in their stir, But now per - haps they speak to her, And

27

27 plain for her to un- der- stand They talk a - bout a time at hand When

Hp.

29

29 I shall sleep with clo - ver clad, And

Hp.

31 (B \flat)

31 she be - side an - oth - er lad.

ritard to the end
Let all of the r.h. notes ring.

Hp.