

She's Like the Swallow

Canadian folk song

Canadian Traditional

arr. Ann Carter-Cox

$\text{♩} = \text{c. } 90$ Set F# above middle C

The score is written for a harp in 3/4 time, with a tempo of approximately 90 beats per minute. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the music is set one octave above middle C. The lyrics are: "She's like the swa-low that flies so high, She's like the ri-ver that ne-ver runs dry, She's like the sun-shine on the lee shore. I love my love and love is no more." The score includes a repeat sign at the end of the first line and a bracketed section labeled "Repeat verses ad libitum" at the end of the second line.

v. 2 'twas out in the meadow this fair maid did go
A picking the beautiful primrose.
The more she plucked the more she pulled Until she gathered her apron full.

v.3. She climbed on yonder hill above
To give a rose unto her love,
She gave him one, she gave him three,
She gave him her heart for company.

v.4. And as they sat on yonder hill
His heart grew hard and harder still.
He has two hearts instead of one,
She says, "Young man, what have you done?"

If singing the song observe the repeat signs for the number of verses sung.

If not singing the song ignore the repeat signs.
