time, I met a maid from home had strayed just as the sun did shine.

v.2 What makes you rise so soon, my dear,
Your journey to pursue?
Your pretty little feet they tread so sweet,
Strike off the morning dew.

v.3 I'm going to feed my father's flock,
His young and tender lambs,
That over hills and over dales
Lie waiting for their dams.

v.4 O stay! O stay! you handsome maid,
And rest a moment here,
For there is none but you alone,
That I do love so dear.

v.5 How gloriously the sun doth shine.
How pleasant is the air,
I'd rather rest on a true love's breast
Than any other where.

v. 6 For I am thine, and thou art mine;
No man shall uncomfourt thee;
We'll join our hands in wedded bands
And a married we will be.

A note about the word, "shearing": according to the Dictionary of the Scots Language the word refers to the reaping of oats.
